

Become a Depositor
WITH THE
Sturdivant Bank

Your money will be kept in
Absolute Security

Payments by check provides undisputed receipt in the form of your returned cancelled checks.

We offer the services of a strong, sound bank to the small, as well as the large depositor.

Commercial and Saving Department.

.....OFFICERS.....

L. J. ALBERT, President. H. L. MACHEN, Cash.
R. B. OLIVER, V-Pres. J. F. LILLY, A. Cash

Cape Locals

Wm. Kerr of Anna, Ill., was in town Monday.

Mrs. N. C. Frissel has returned from an extended visit to Chaffee.

Mrs. Robert Moore and family of Jackson were in the city Monday.

John Woody of Bloomfield transacted business in this city last Saturday.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Whitworth was in Crossnoe Monday on official business.

After visiting Prof. Sitze and family, Miss M. S. Frank left Monday for her home in Pine Bluff, Ark.

The Herald will have some interesting news for the public next week and you should not fail to see the paper.

The counties of New Madrid and Scott have sent thirty students to the Cape Girardeau Normal this year.

Robert Harrison left Friday afternoon for Alton, Ill., where he will resume his studies in the Military Academy.

Noah Cooper, editor of the Sesser, (Ill.) Herald, was in the city attending the fair Monday and paid the Herald a visit.

Chris. F. Betten is now chief clerk in Houck office, taking the place of Albert Lilly, who resigned the place on account of bad health.

H. D. Lance has purchased the property of Chris Betten on Middle street and is preparing to move his family there. Consideration $5000.

Motharts' Business College was treated to a nice discourse by Supt. Geo. Reavis of the public schools in the interest of education, Monday.

WANTED—60 head of Stock Sheep, 10 head Stock Cows and 20 head of Yearlings. See Lawrence Morrison, 25 South Spanish street, city. 45-4t

Jasper Punch of Bloomfield was in the city last Friday and Saturday.

Mercer D. Wilson and Julian Friant left Tuesday for Springfield, Ill., to attend the State Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Caten attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge of Masons in St. Louis this week.

The school children were turned out Thursday and Friday to see the fair and the many young Americans were happy.

Deputy Marshal Whitworth is busy preparing for the coming federal court which convenes here the coming month.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Weiler have returned from Chicago, accompanied by Mr. Weiler's niece, Miss Clara Guebel.

Mrs. Albert Naive and Mrs. Miles Howlett of Charleston, Mo., have been in the city this week as guests of Dr. Grissom's family, and incidentally to attend the fair.

John D. Porterfield, Jr., left today for Chicago to renew his medical studies. He has been here on a two weeks' visit to his parents, Dr. and Mrs. John D. Porterfield.

The creditors of J. Bank, the recent Oran bankrupt merchant, held a meeting in the office of Judge Ross, general referee in bankruptcy, Tuesday, to adjust the affairs of Mr. Bank.

Mayor Kage issued a proclamation to the business men of the city to close the stores and other institutions in order to allow all who so desired to attend the fair, and a result Thursday produced a big turnout.

Major Jas. F. Brooks, who has been paying an extended visit to his family here, has returned to Gainesville, Ga., accompanied by his wife. The Major is connected with railroad work down there and expects to be away two months.

Downright Merit in Clothes

If you are seeking something better than average—real worth and lasting satisfaction in a Suit or Overcoat—come here. You'll find it in these new creations direct from

The House of Kuppenheimer

You've seen grays, but never the soft and beautiful shades we're showing in clothes of this famous make.

Never such blues—such rich browns—such stunning mixtures.

Copyright The House of Kuppenheimer Chicago

Many of these models are made up following our own ideas, for our best trade.

They have that indescribable cut and swing that appeal to the careful dresser.

And lasting quality—pure virgin wool clothes—that keep their rightness and richness.

Nobody can find fault with our persuasive prices.

Nowhere else will your clothes money go so far—accomplish so much.

W. H. BOHNSACK, JR.

CAPE GIRARDEAU

1-3 MAIN STREET

Two negroes indulged in a fracas near the corner of Broadway and Water street Tuesday, and the Bollinger negro stabbed his antagonist, Noland, in the back with a pocket knife. Officer Summers in arresting Bollinger was forced to lead him a merry chase along Themis street to the court house, but finally overtook him and placed him in the city locker.

F. Crit Jones left Saturday for Chicago to enter the big Inland Mergenthaler linotype school, where he will receive instruction from the master machinists of New York City in the construction and general working mechanism of the Standard linotype typesetting machines. His varied experiences in printing should be of great aid to him in mastering this machine and we hope to see him develop into an expert linotype operator.

Geo. S. Summers of Cape Girardeau, and Hon. Arthur L. Oliver of this city, will be the principal speakers at the M. W. A. log rolling in this city tomorrow and Thursday. Mr. Summers is well known in this city, is a member of the Board of Auditors of the organization, and is one of the best posted Woodmen in the State. As for the Colonel—well, nothing needs be said—we all know him.—Caruthersville Missouri Democrat.

WANTED:—Lady and gent's salesmen; experience unnecessary. Call Room 10, Riverview hotel between 7 and 10, Saturday p. m. Call for Thorpe.

Leon Clippard of Jackson was in the city Thursday.

Rev. L. D. Lowe is in St. Louis attending conference.

Miss Virginia Clardy is the guest of Mrs. P. B. Leming.

Jno. A. Schanck of Perryville is a new attache at the St. Charles Drug Store.

Mr. August Lang has returned from St. Louis after several days visit to friends.

Let Herald ads tell your customers about your store. Phone No. 2 and a solicitor will call on you.

H. A. Astholz was run over by an automobile on Main street, yesterday morning, driven by Walter Vandeven, and was severely cut about the neck.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cnas. Rieker, Good Hope street, and another girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sauerland, on N. Sprigg street.

Rev. E. F. Abbott and family left Tuesday for Fulton, where Mr. Abbott will engage in ministerial duties and school work. He recently resigned this charge on account of too much pay and to benefit the health of his son.

The story circulated that Jan Kubelik, the world's greatest violinist, would entertain a local audience soon, no doubt touched the hearts of musical enthusiasts of this vicinity, yet we doubt if the statement can be verified owing to the fact that cities of the million population class are calling for this noted musician. From theatrical publications of authority a fellow might learn if Jan is in real earnest about paying us a visit.

The Normal football team will play the Giants of St. Louis tomorrow. They won the game with Farmington Saturday on the local grounds and have been putting up a classy game in all the season's battles, but when they tackle the St. Louis University team their real strength will be tested, as the Giants have them outclassed in weight, besides the Normals have suffered physical reverses that will be a handicap to them.

The second attempt of "Bud" Mars in air navigation Wednesday was marred by an accident to the machine. In making the decent the "bird man" ran into the clay pigeon rack at the fair grounds. The first flight was a success.

Pastorial Conference.

The fall meeting of the Southeast Missouri Pastorial Conference convened Wednesday, in this city Rev. Thos. Levan, president of St. Vincent's College, acted as moderator and Rev. A. Rohling of Chaffee was secretary. Following is a personnel of the membership in attendance: Reverends Thos. Levan, Cape Girardeau St. Vincent's college; J. Murtaugh, St. Vincent's church; Edw. Pruente St. Mary's church; A. Rohling, Chaffee; M. D. Collins, Jackson; J. Muehlsiepen, Kelso; Cl. Moenig, New Hamburg; M. Helmbacher, Oran; J. Fitzkam, Renton; J. Schulz, Sikeston; H. Petri, Charleston; F. O'Sullivan, Portageville; M. Taylor, New Madrid; Jos. Bonlamp, Advance; P. Kurtenbach, Leopold; F. Peters, Glennonville.

Moving Sermon.

"I once had a parishioner who was a miser," said an English clergyman. "For this man's benefit I preached one Sunday a strong sermon on the necessity of charity, of philanthropy—a sermon on the duty and the joy of giving. The miser at whom I gazed often, seemed impressed. "Next day I met him on the street. "Well, John," I said, "what do you think of yesterday's sermon?" "It moved me deeply, sir," he answered. "It brought home to me so strongly the necessity of giving aims that honestly, sir, I've a great mind to turn beggar."

Market Report.

The St. Louis live stock market of Sept. 25, shows: Cattle receipts 10,000. Steers 10c lower today; butcher cattle 10 to 15c lower. Quality poor compared with last Monday. Choice steers and butcher cattle unchanged; all others 25c lower. Expect steady selling for all choice grades. Heavy receipts of grassy to pretty good cattle will develop somewhat lower prices. Hogs receipts 9500. Big 10c lower; top $7.00; bulk $6.70 to $6.95. The immediate future has no encouragement. Sheep receipts 4500. Lambs 25c lower; sheep steady today. With last Monday, lambs 15c higher; top $8.10. Sheep 10c higher; top $3.75.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

State of Missouri, ss. County of Cape Girardeau ss. In the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas of Cape Girardeau County, Missouri, November Term, 1911.

Lillian Rodenmayer, Plaintiff
Against
Walter G. Rodenmayer, Defendant.

Now at this day comes Lillian Rodenmayer, the plaintiff in the above entitled cause by attorney of record herein, before the undersigned, Clerk of the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas, in vacation, and on behalf of plaintiff files petition in suit herein, and also affidavit of plaintiff herein, among other matters of action alleging:

That said defendant, Walter G. Rodenmayer, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri and that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon defendant in the State of Missouri.

It is therefore ordered by the clerk aforesaid in vacation, that publication be made, notifying him that action has been commenced against him, by petition, the immediate object and general nature of which is to obtain a divorce from the bonds of matrimony contracted between plaintiff and said defendant on the grounds of abandonment and that unless he be and appear at the next term of this court, to be holden in the city of Cape Girardeau, Cape Girardeau county, Missouri, on Monday, the twenty-seventh day of November, 1911, and on or before the third day thereof (if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then before the end of the term), and then and there answer or plead to said petition, said petition will be taken and adjudged as confessed and judgment will be rendered against said defendant.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the Cape County Herald, a newspaper published in said County of Cape Girardeau, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next term of said court.

A true copy.
Attest:
LOUIS KRUEGER, Clerk

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

State of Missouri, ss. County of Cape Girardeau ss. In the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas of Cape Girardeau County, Missouri, November Term, 1911.

Sylvia Crowther, Plaintiff
Against
Frank Crowther, Defendant.

Now at this day comes Sylvia Crowther, the plaintiff in the above entitled cause by attorney of record herein, before the undersigned, Clerk of the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas, in vacation, and on behalf of plaintiff files petition in suit herein, and also affidavit of plaintiff herein, among other matters of action alleging:

That said defendant, Frank Crowther, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri and that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon defendant in the State of Missouri.

It is therefore ordered by the clerk aforesaid in vacation, that publication be made, notifying him that action has been commenced against him, by petition, the immediate object and general nature of which is to obtain a divorce from the bonds of matrimony contracted between plaintiff and said defendant on grounds for the causes set forth in said petition, and that unless he be and appear at the next term of this court to be holden in the city of Cape Girardeau, Cape Girardeau county, Missouri, on Monday, the twenty-seventh day of November, 1911, and on or before the third day thereof (if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then before the end of the term), and then and there answer or plead to said petition, said petition will be taken and adjudged as confessed and judgment will be rendered against defendant.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the Cape County Herald, a newspaper published in said county of Cape Girardeau, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next term of said court.

A true copy.
Attest:
LOUIS KRUEGER, Clerk.

It's better to wear out than to rust out. Advertising in the Herald prevents both.

David A. Glenn, President
H. Rozier, Vice-President
L. S. Joseph, Cashier

G. S. Summers, Asst. Cashier
W. O. Bowman, Asst. Cashier
H. Bremmerman, Saving Dept.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
CAPE GIRARDEAU, MISSOURI

CAPITAL $100,000.00
SURPLUS 22,500.00

Accounts of individuals, business firms and corporations solicited. Interest on Time Deposits and Savings Accounts at rate of 4 per cent per annum

OFFICE ROOMS AND SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT

COTNER AUTO SUPPLY CO.,
PHONE 605. No. 12 MAIN STREET
Automobile Supplies of all Kinds.
Wholesale And Retail Dealers
It Will Pay You to Visit Our Store
Mail Orders a Specialty.
CAPE GIRARDEAU, MISSOURI